

Monday, 11 July 2016

Workshop – Effective and Meaningful Participation in EMRIP

in English, Spanish, French and Russian

13:15 – 14:45, Room 24 (XXIV), Building E, UN Palais des Nations, Geneva

Co-facilitators: Binota Dhamai, UN Voluntary Fund board member and June Lorenzo, Indigenous World Association

Docip and the UN Voluntary Fund for Indigenous Peoples cordially invite you to the workshop, Effective and Meaningful Participation in EMRIP. This training session is open to all delegates.

13:15-14:00 About EMRIP (45 minutes)

- 13:15 – 13:20 Welcome and presentation of the UN Voluntary Fund for Indigenous Peoples
Speaker: Binota Dhamai, Voluntary Fund board member
- 13:20-13:25 Welcome and presentation of Docip
Speaker: David Matthey-Doret, Director, Docip
- 13:25-13:35 Introduction to EMRIP
Speaker: Andrea Carmen, International Indian Treaty Council
- 13:35-13:45 Questions and Discussion
- 13:45-13:50 (approximately) About EMRIP
Speaker: Antti Korkeakivi, Chief of the Indigenous Peoples and Minorities Section, OHCHR
- 13:50-14:00 Questions and discussion

14:00-14:45 EMRIP's ninth session: About this conference (45 minutes)

- 14:00-14:10 Introduction to this conference: What this meeting is and how to work in it
Speaker: Binota Dhamai, Voluntary Fund board member
- 14:10-14:20 Questions and discussion
- 14:20-14:30 Planning tools: Explanation of using the three planning documents: the meeting agenda, programme of work, and the Secretariat's list of side events
Speaker: June Lorenzo, Indigenous World Association
- 14:30-14:45 Questions and discussion (15 minutes)

With the support of the European Union, the Sámediggi (Saami Parliament in Norway), the Swiss Agency for Development and Cooperation, the Canton of Geneva, the City of Geneva and the UN Voluntary Fund for Indigenous Peoples