

Monday, May 16, 2016

Workshop – Other UN Mechanisms, the 2030 Agenda, and Advocacy Opportunities

in English, Spanish, French and Russian

18:15 – 19:30, Conference Room 7, Conference Building, UN Headquarters, New York

Co-Facilitators: Joshua Cooper, Hawai'i Institute for Human Rights, and Rosalee Gonzalez, FIMI

Docip and the UN Voluntary Fund for Indigenous Peoples cordially invite you to the workshop, Other UN Mechanisms, the 2030 Agenda, and Advocacy Opportunities. This training session is open to all delegates.

18:15-18:30 Other UN Mechanisms

Speaker: Joshua Cooper, Hawai'i Institute for Human Rights
Questions and discussion

18:30-19:00 The 2030 Agenda

18:30-18:45 Indigenous Peoples and the 2030 Agenda/SDGs:

background, main issues and current advocacy opportunities

Speakers: Roberto Borrero and Galina Angarova, SDGs Major Groups Representatives for Indigenous Peoples
Questions and discussion

18:45-19:00 The 2030 Agenda and Youth: Issues and Opportunities for Promoting Indigenous Rights

Speaker: Dalí Angel, Co-Chair, Global Indigenous Youth Caucus
Questions and discussion

19:00-19:15 Advocacy Opportunities for Indigenous Women

Speaker: Rosalee Gonzalez, FIMI

19:15-19:30 Advocacy Opportunities for Indigenous Persons with Disabilities

Speaker: Doreen Demas, Global Network of Indigenous Persons with Disabilities
Questions and discussion

With the support of the European Union, the Sámediggi (Saami Parliament in Norway), the Swiss Agency for Development and Cooperation, the Canton of Geneva, the City of Geneva and the UN Voluntary Fund for Indigenous Peoples

<http://www.docip.org>