

LOGISTICAL INFORMATION : GENEVA

ACCOMMODATIONS

Please call the following hotels for a room reservation in Geneva.

Notice: The prices below are those from 2015.

Important: Occupancy tax per person: CHF 2.50,- (subject to change). This tax entitles you to the Geneva Transport card in most accommodations, giving you free access to the public transport during your stay.

Please note: Sometimes a credit card is needed for reservation. If this is the case you will find a “CC” at the description. If you want to stay in a hostel and don't have a credit card (www.youthhostel.ch) you can make a deposit at a hostel from “Hostelling International” (4500 Hostels worldwide; www.hihostels.com) in your country to confirm the reservation. Another way to make a reservation at a hotel if you don't have a credit card is by paying a part of the whole amount in advance.

"Unireso" nominal monthly full-fare pass All Zones, CHF 70.-

"Transferable" Monthly full-fare pass All Zones, CHF 100.-

You can buy the pass at the "TPG" (Transports Publics Genevois) desk in the "Cornavin" train station. You only need to provide Your ID, address with name of the person living there (or hotel address). They will take the picture of You on the place and print the monthly pass immediately. There are also passes for longer period, up to one year, available and passes for other zones as well. Opening hours of the desk: Monday to Friday: 7am-7pm, Saturday 9am-5pm, closed on Sunday. You can also buy the pass at CFF counters at the station or the airport.

How to buy a bus ticket

Almost all bus stops have a ticket machine. Push the button corresponding to the ticket you want and then put the money (or credit card) in. The ticket will be printed automatically. For a standard trip, choose the button under the column A (TOUT GENEVE Zones 11, 12, 15, 16 et 17). This is a pass for one hour. For a shorter trip, choose the button "Saut de puce/Short trip" that is valid for 3 bus stops with no connection or return trip.

Please note: The new ticket machines with a screen are those that give back change, while the old machines, without a screen do not give back change, but accept credit cards.

If you plan to take the bus often, you can purchase a card cart@bonus for CHF 20.-, 30.-, or 50.- (similar to a telephone card), at the train station "Cornavin" TPG Office or you can buy them at certain kiosks or tobacco shops.

How to use the card

Before entering the bus, push the button corresponding to the ticket you want and put the card into the machine to be debited for that amount. You will receive a ticket. Whatever the amount remaining on the card, you can always buy a ticket for CHF 3.50.-.

USEFUL FACILITIES

1. Internet

Apart from the technical secretariat at the doCip office, you can send e-mails and use computers with internet in the UN library, located on the 3rd floor of Door 20 (Building B). Computers are often busy, so our advice would be to go there early in the morning. Opening hours are 8.30am to 5.30pm, Monday to Friday.

The city of Geneva has set up about 70 free Wi-Fi hotspots in the city center: it is free to get connected to these hotspots with your laptop (if it has a wireless connection feature) by selecting the "((o)) ville-de-genève" network.

Some Wi-Fi hotspots in Geneva are:

- Place des Nations
- Parc des Bastions
- Plaine de Plainpalais
- Parc la Grange et Parc des Eaux-Vives
- Bain des Paquis
- Jardin anglais

For a complete list of the free Wi-Fi access points, please check the following website: <http://www.ville-geneve.ch/themes/environnement-urbain-espaces-verts/acces/>

Cybercafés
