

Monday, 10 July 2017

Workshop – Effective and Meaningful Participation in EMRIP

in English, Spanish, French and Russian

13:15 – 14:45, Room 23 (XXIII), Building E, UN Palais des Nations, Geneva

Co-facilitators: Anne Nuorgam, board member, UN Voluntary Fund for Indigenous Peoples and Joshua Cooper, Hawai'i Institute for Human Rights

Docip and the UN Voluntary Fund for Indigenous Peoples cordially invite you to the workshop, Effective and Meaningful Participation in EMRIP. This training session is open to all delegates.

1:15-1:30 pm: Welcome and introductions to the Voluntary Fund and Docip

- Welcome and presentation of the UN Voluntary Fund for Indigenous Peoples. Speaker: UN-VFIP board member: Anne Nuorgam (Finland) (10 minutes)
- Welcome and presentation of Docip. Speaker: David Matthey-Doret, Director, Docip (5 minutes).

1:30 – 2:00 pm: About EMRIP

- Introduction to EMRIP. Speaker: Mr. Alexey Tsykarev, independent expert on the Expert Mechanism on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples (15 minutes)
- Questions and Discussion (15 minutes)

2:00 – 2:45 pm: EMRIP's tenth session: About this conference

- Introduction to this conference: What this meeting is and how to work in it. Speakers: Qhapaj Conde, co-president of the Global Indigenous Youth Caucus and Dalí Angel, Mujeres Indígenas por Ciarena and member, Global Indigenous Youth Caucus (10 minutes)
- Questions and discussion (10 minutes)
- Planning tools: Explanation of using the three planning documents: the meeting agenda, program of work, and the daily list of side events. Where to find all of this information for EMRIP meetings. Speaker: Joshua Cooper, Hawai'i Institute for Human Rights (10 minutes)
- Questions and discussion (15 minutes)

With the support of the European Union, the Sámediggi (Saami Parliament in Norway), the City of Geneva and the UN Voluntary Fund for Indigenous Peoples