

TÂSILHQOT'IN NATIONAL GOVERNMENT

ACHIEVING HUMAN RIGHTS FOR INDIGENOUS PEOPLES AND PROTECTING OUR LANDS, WATERS AND SACRED SPACES

OUR SUCCESSES, STRUGGLES AND STRATEGIES FOR THE FUTURE

This side event will highlight the challenges faced by Indigenous people as they act to protect their lands, waters, cultural and spiritual practices, and ultimately, their way of life. The Tâsilhqot'in will share their journey to achieve recognized Aboriginal Title and their experiences, learnings and recommendations from the protracted conflict at the intersection of human rights and mining interests.

NOVEMBER 26, 2019 | 3:00 PM - 4:30 PM
PALAIS DES NATIONS, ROOM IX

English-Spanish Interpretation Provided